C. Provisions of the Act:

If any company fails to file its annual return under sub-section (4), before the expiry of the period specified therein, such company and its every officer who is in default shall be liable to a penalty of ten thousand rupees and in case of continuing failure, with further penalty of one hundred rupees for each day during which such failure continues, subject to a maximum of two lakh rupees in case of a company and fifty thousand rupees in case of an officer who is in default.

D. Facts about the case:

1. Default committed by the officers in default/noticee - It has been observed from the records available with this office that the company has defaulted in filing its annual return for the financial year 2023-24 with the registrar within the prescribed period, and such default continues till date. Accordingly, the company and its officers in default has violated the provisions of section 92(4) of the Companies Act, 2013 which attracts penal provisions under Section 92(5) of the Companies Act, 2013.
2. The Company and its officers in default have not responded to the show cause notices issued to them despite service through email as well as speed post. Further, no request for e-hearing has been made. Accordingly, the Adjudicating officer is of the view that no e-hearing is required in the present case.

E. Order:

1. The company and its officers in default have failed to demonstrate compliance with the provisions of Section 92(4) of the Companies Act, 2013, for the financial year 2023-24. Despite due service of show cause notices, no response has been received. Further, records available on the MCA portal indicates that the company and its officers in default have failed to file copy of annual return in form MGT-7/7A in accordance with Section 92(4) of the Companies Act, 2013 for the F.Y. 2023-24 till date.

In view of the above, it is evident that the company and its officers in default have failed to comply with the statutory requirements of Section 92(4) of the Companies Act, 2013, within the prescribed timeline. Accordingly, they are liable for penal action under the Companies Act, 2013.

Therefore, I am imposing penalty as prescribed under section 92(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 on the company and its officers in default for the aforementioned non-compliance.
